With Love and Faith, we achieve together ...

Father's Musings

While the world may seem to be very indifferent to Christianity most of the time, it can be very critical of Christians who do not seem to be following the most basic tenet of their faith – to be a people of “good deeds”, as Jesus teaches in today’s portion of the Sermon on the Mount. While we may sometimes feel indignant about the world’s criticism of our faults, we have to remember that we are in a vital relationship with “the world” – we are to be its light. This means that we should welcome the world’s gaze and scrutiny of our actions and beliefs and we should, in a sense, be accountable to the world for the way we live. We should never be salt that loses its taste. This openness to the gaze of all is not for our own glory, however: it is so that others may find what we have found – their way to the Father.

On Monday last we had the first meeting of our Sacramental Programme for those preparing for First Holy Communion. Please keep the six children and your families in your prayers during this period of preparation.

A good number of us are of an age to remember the ‘Wag Officer’ at school who used to seek out those not attending. I think you better call the Wag Officer for me as I didn’t attend my BSL Class on Tuesday! This was partly due to other events and also the fact I hadn’t done my homework. With sign language I can’t even use the excuse that the dog ate it!!! As you will have worked out by now I am a bearer of very little brain and incompetent in many areas but I must try better this coming week especially as the first of the exams is on the horizon.

On Wednesday I hurtled off to the Church Suppliers in Southport to purchase some altar wine for the celebration of Mass and then had a walk along the promenade. Sadly there was no ice cream to be had as all the places to buy it were shut. I was back in time to attend the Governors Meeting at our Primary School.

As a result of the Governors meeting I have to catch up on my Safeguarding Training, Cyber Training and Prevent Training. Mercifully most of this can be done on the hair-net. I am reminded of Fr Ray who used to say ‘when He said “Do this in Memory of Me” He never meant it it turn into all this’!

Thursday morning saw the first Deanery Meeting of the New Year. These fairly informal gatherings of the deanery clergy enable us to get together and discuss matters pertaining to our parishes in this part of the diocese and for us to share our joys and sorrows of the priestly ministry. The meeting ends with a meal and a time of fellowship together. In the evening I was at the Lourdes Nursing and Medical Team Meeting as we begin our preparations for the Diocesan Pilgrimage in July.

With my prayer and blessing for the coming week.

Fr Francis
